

Edits Needed

Home Page

1. The banner rotates too quickly; slow it down or add a pause button. It makes you dizzy if you are looking at the categories as it spins. Especially when it goes from the last one to first.

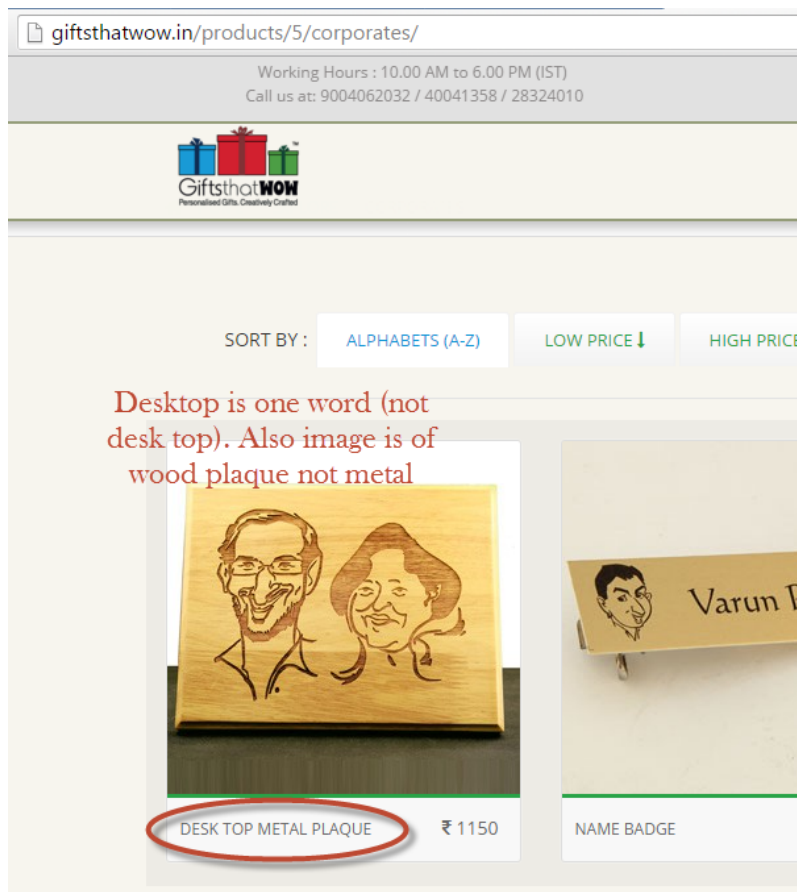

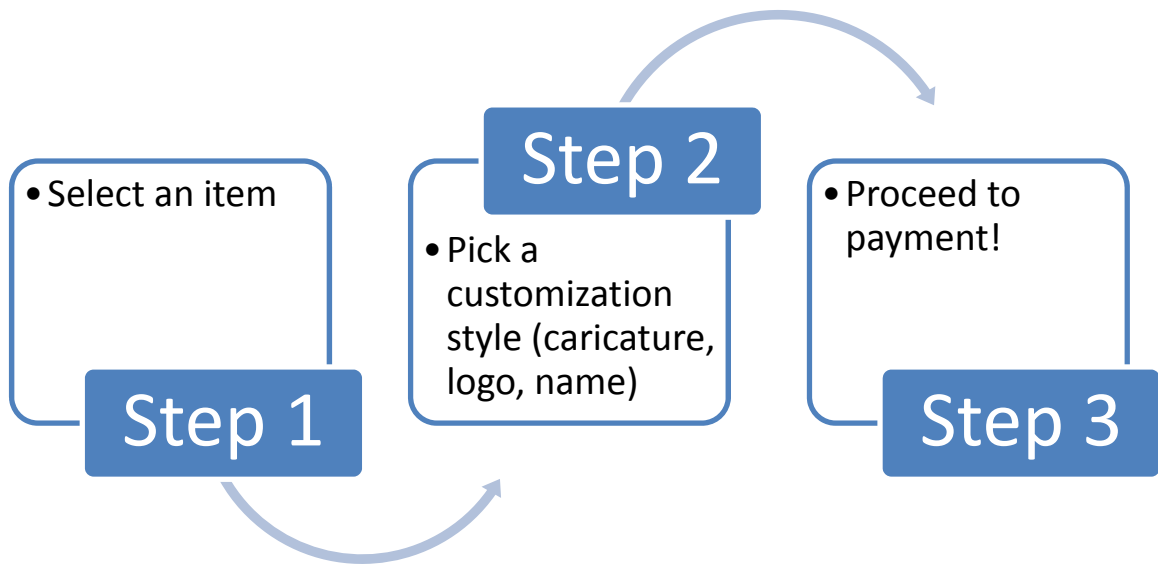

2.

3.

4. Think you need a section on the home page or somewhere that explains how the process works, something like this:

Contact

If the point is you want people to come in to the factory and check things out then do something like this on the page:

Visit the Gifts that Wow showroom to browse our products and place an order in person.

General

- Personalized vs Personalised – same for personalization vs personalization. Used differently across the site (e.g. FAQs page has the version with the “s”).
- On the <http://giftsthatwow.in/product-description> page, might I suggest putting an example of caricatures. Put a photo and then the 3 types of exaggeration. Picture's worth a thousand words – better to show in addition to explaining with words.
